Dear Parents/Carers,

I am writing to give you an advanced reminder that it is World Book Day on Thursday 1st March 2018. We will be celebrating the day here at Gusford.

The theme this year will be: HEROES from books.

We would like the children to read stories or non-fiction books that have a hero in them. So over the next few weeks, whilst they read their book from school or books they have at home, we would like them to think if there is a hero in the book.

It might be a real life hero such as a policeman, or firefighter or a lifeboat person. It might be a hero from the past such as Florence Nightingale

or

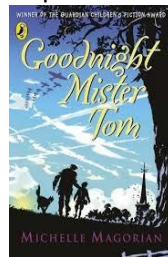

It might be a superhero such as

or

It could be a fictional person such as: Grandpa from or Mr Tom from

Once they have found a hero in a book they can then start putting their costume together. We would like the children to bring in the book they have modelled their hero from on World Book Day.

There will be more details to follow – including a timetable of when you can come and work with your child in the hall. There will also be a parade of costumes first thing in the morning on Thursday 1st March.

Looking forward to seeing all the heroes.
